

NARRATIVE

by OKANAGAN CRUSH PAD

ROSÉ 2022

Narrative wines tell the story of the Okanagan and its rare climate; one that is home to both an arid desert landscape and cold snowy winters, with an intense, short growing season. From this place come wines with naturally, fresh acidity and integrated fruit forwardness. www.okanagancrushpad.com

WINE NOTES

This fresh lively bordeaux based rose was fermented using natural yeast in concrete and stainless steel tanks to retain fruit freshness. The wine has lifted floral and red berry aromatics with a creamy savouriness and an Okanagan herbal flair. Enjoy with good friends and lots of sun.

Matt Dumayne was born and raised in Auckland, New Zealand. After completing his education, he launched his winemaking career in 1998; first as a cellar hand, then as assistant winemaker at Central Otago winery Gibbston Valley Wines where he worked with Grant Taylor, one of the world's most awarded Pinot Noir winemakers. Vintages in Central Otago, California, Australia, Oregon and the Okanagan rounded out his experience. Now at Okanagan Crush Pad since 2013, Matt brings unparalleled insight and passion to the art of low intervention winemaking. Working with a team of acclaimed international consultants, traveling, tasting and continually pushing to elevate his game and our wines, each vintage offers a canvas to create hallmark Okanagan wines that push quality to new levels.
